

1956 - Budapest Is Rising

Chess In Concert

Chorus: 1956 - Budapest is rising. Freddie: I'd have thought you'd support Chorus: Any attack on these people. 1956 - Budapest is rising. On the people who ran mindlessly over your childhood. Don't let them fool you. For 30 years on, they're the same. Chorus: 1956 - Budapest is fighting. 1956 - Budapest is falling. Freddie: They see chess as a war. Chorus: Playing with pawns just like Poland. 1956 - Budapest is dying. If you walk out on me, you're really betraying your father. Were he alive now, he'd surely be dying of shame. Florence: You know that there's nothing I've done that he'd be ashamed of in my whole life! Why'd you have to do this to me?

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>