

Titan

HammerFall

The gate is closed, the sky is burning

Dark clouds are closing in

A world at war, no revelation could've

Predicted the mankind's fall

Somewhere above - beyond the lunar skies

We'll be resurrected -Ah!

What have we done - we paid the highest price

No shelter for the undeserving masses

Standing in line for our final journey

Into space and beyond

A final sigh, a breath of hope we gotta

Heed the terminal call

Counting the stars - we pulled the shortest straw

Life is fading rapidly - Ah!

Nothing remains - A withered devil's claw

Sole survivors picking up the pieces

Titan

Even the dark has a silver lining

Titan, Titan

Shining bright so far beyond the sun

Solo: Stefan

So this is the new beginning

So far away, so far away

Solo: Oscar

We leave our past behind us

No turning back, no turning back

Titan

Even the dark has a silver lining

Titan, Titan

Shining bright so far beyond the sun

Titan

Even the dark has a silver lining

Titan, Titan

Shining bright so far beyond the sun

Oh, oh?

We will fly

Oh,oh?

We're flying into space

Oh, oh?

Fly, fly away

Oh, oh?

We're flying into space
