

Nothin' Like Tomorrow

Supreme Beings of Leisure

Nothin' like tomorrow Vapor kiss memory of such longing
Whispered dream gone before the morning Time is such a funny thing
It pulls you on like silly string
Oh, the pain and sorrow Never thought the haunting of
Is such a temporary love
Could make me beg and borrow Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow, yeah Sugar sweet, I won't forget the dawning
All alone smiles come through the yawning
Love is such a funny thing
It pulls me on like silly string
Something like a good dream If they find that I am lost
Point me to the nearest cross
Naked as a moonbeam Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow Calling whispers sent to you at the speed of light
(At the speed of light)
Calling whispers sent to you at the speed of light
(At the speed of light)
Calling whispers sent to you at the speed of light Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow
There is nothing like tomorrow
Love is such a funny thing
(Nothin' like tomorrow)
And I'm waiting for tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow
Nothin' like tomorrow
