

Prodigal

OneRepublic

We say good-bye
I turn my back
Run away, run away
So predictable
Not far from here
You see me crack
Like a bone, like a bone
I'm so breakable And I take everything from you
But you'll take anything
Won't you?
Run away, run away
Like a prodigal
Don't you wait for me
Don't you wait for me
So ashamed, so ashamed
But I need you so
And you wait for me
And you wait for me I'm on the road
To who knows where?
Look ahead, not behind
I keep saying
There's no place to go
Where you're not there
On your rope, I hold tight
But it's freeing
And I take everything from you
But you'll take anything
Won't you? Run away, run away
Like a prodigal
Don't you wait for me
Don't you wait for me
So ashamed, so ashamed
But I need you so
And you wait for me
And you wait for me Everybody wants to be right
But only if it's not day light?
I keep trying to find my way back
My way back Run away, run away
Like a prodigal
Don't you wait for me
Don't you wait for me
So ashamed, so ashamed

But I need you so
And you wait for me
And you wait for me
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
From you
From you
From you
