Prodigal

OneRepublic

We say good-bye
I turn my back

Run away, run away

So predictable

Not far from here

You see me crack

Like a bone, like a bone

I'm so breakableAnd I take everything from you

But you'll take anything

Won't you?

Run away, run away

Like a prodigal

Don't you wait for me

Don't you wait for me

So ashamed, so ashamed

But I need you so

And you wait for me

And you wait for meI'm on the road

To who knows where?

Look ahead, not behind

I keep saying

There's no place to go

Where you're not there

On your rope, I hold tight

But it's freeing

And I take everything from you

But you'll take anything

Won't you?Run away, run away

Like a prodigal

Don't you wait for me

Don't you wait for me

So ashamed, so ashamed

But I need you so

And you wait for me

And you wait for meEverybody wants to be right

But only if it's not day light?

I keep trying to find my way back

My way backRun away, run away

Like a prodigal

Don't you wait for me

Don't you wait for me

So ashamed, so ashamed

But I need you so
And you wait for me
And you wait for me
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
From you
From you
From you
