Horace andy
Yeah yeah yeah ah
you see a man's face
but you don't see his heart
but you will never know his thoughts Everywhere you go there's a man to say love never neither never neither take it to heart
For your heart is your heart and your thoughts is your thoughts never mix love with hatred
You see a man's face
you will never see his heart
you will never know his thoughts
