

This Luv

Donell Jones

[Verse 1]

Boo do you mind if I take this seat right here
Cause you're sitting alone
If you're sipping on Cris' girl, I'm buying (yeah)
And if you got a nigga don't lie
Ain't got to front for me
I will give you these digits that you can call
You can hit me on my cell if I'm not home

[Pre-Chorus]

Are you down to swing enough with me
Or could you be blinded by all this ice you see
I'm willing to give you all this love I got
No relationship involved
Gotta keep it strictly physical

[Chorus]

All this love (All this love waiting just for you)
So don't pass it up cause you'll regret it boo
I'll be patiently waiting to hear from you
Girl you gotta be the one girl
You gotta be the one yeah, yeah, yeah

[Verse 2]

See I don't mind making house calls
If you wanna go blow for blow
Girl whatever you're down for, I'm trying
It won't hurt him if he don't know
That's how it's got to be
I understand you got a nigga that lives at home
But I want to be the cat that makes you moan

[Pre-Chorus]

Say are you down to swing enough with me
Or could you be blinded by all this ice you see
I'm willing to give you all this love I got
No relationships involved
Gotta keep it strictly physical

[Chorus]

All this love (All this love waiting just for you)
So don't pass it up cause you'll regret it boo
I'll be patiently waiting to hear from you
And now you gonna be the one
Girl you gotta be the one
All this love
All this love waiting just for you
So don't pass it up cause you'll regret it boo
I'll be patiently waiting to hear from you
And now you gonna be the one
You gonna be the one, oh yeah yeah

[Spoken]

Yeah, I'm patiently waiting
Cuz there's so many things we can do
So many things we can share
With no strings attached, you like that?
You're gonna be the one yeah, yeah yeah

[Chorus]

All this love waiting just for you
So don't pass it up cause you'll regret it boo
I'll be patiently waiting to hear from you
And now you gonna be the one
Cause you gonna be the one, yeah yeah
All this love waiting just for you
So don't pass it up cause you'll regret it boo
I'll be patiently waiting to hear from you
And now you gonna be the one
You gonna be the one, yeah
