

Fly Away

K'Jon

When I was a kid growing up
I thought I was invincible, indestructible
Something like a super hero
Despite the villains and the foes
It didn't matter
I stayed under control Even now as a man
I'm faced with the same situations
Like the weight of a whole nation
Is making me fall backwards
So I use the same tactics
When I was a kid
To combat the evil and the hate
I put on my super cape
And fly away
Uh oh! So bad
That's how we people act
So sad
All we know is imperfection
And it last for someone
A whole life time
But I come to find
We have a connection So why do we Always disagree
We make our close friends
Our enemies
To our enemies
We become their prey
So let's make a vow
Here is what you say
I won't let people
Get the best of me
I'm a spread my wings
Watch me fly away
I will rise above
All these haters
Like a super man
Because I can Fly away
Fly away I got super powers
And I won't be devoured Fly away
Fly away Stop me you could never
Because I'm the strongest ever So glad
My life is positive

No one has
Been more supportive
Than my people
I'm doing this for my kidsMy family we keep it tight
We don't need no negativesStill I encounter them
The world got problems
Like a super hero
Go and handle them
Put on that super cape
Watch me shoulder shake
All these haters off
Here is what you sayI won't let people
Get the best of me
I'm a spread my wings
Watch me fly away
Like a super man
Fly awayStop me you could never
Because I'm the strongest everI got to fly away
Where haters can't penetrate
You got to rise above
Even if you ain't getting love
And if you feel like you've had enough
When the going gets rough
Just get tough
And you gotta say
Up, up and awayI Gotta fly.I won't let people
Get the best of me
I'm a spread my wings
Watch me fly away
I will rise above
All these haters
Like a super man
Because I canFly away
Because I'm the strongest ever
