

Waiting Room

No Doubt

I sign in my name
I guess I have to wait a while
I'm gonna play this game
Call me up if you know how to dial You always had my number
You need to be my lover
Humiliation
I'm in the waiting room If we both want the love
And I wait long enough
Then the ground that we're on might be common
All I can do is wait for you
All I can do is wait for you
I'm all alone in the waiting room
I'm all alone in the waiting room
When you buried in solitude
It can get real thick
Desire is your only food
It can get you sick
You know you're so fine
I'm over here standing in this line
Just waiting in the waiting room While I'm in the waiting room
A thousand thoughts I think of you
Whatever you did, it's got me glued
It's icky, it's sticky, ooo You're the one I'm dreaming of Why does this feel like wasted time?
What a price is traveling love?
You and me trapped between these lines
Ooo, you're so mine
All I can do is wait for you (I'm just waiting for you)
All I can do is wait for you (You know you want me)
All I can do is wait for you (You always had my number)
All I can do is wait for you (You know you need to be my lover)
All I can do is wait for you
All I can do is wait for you Wait for you. Wait for... Why are you making me wait?
I'm all alone in the waiting room Will you call me when it's my turn?
