

Stay and Fight

Tamar Braxton

We could walk away from this mess we made
We could live along, set fire to this and watch it burn
We can act like it was not even really love in the first place
We could throw out the pictures
And throw our drinks away
We could forget the words we were too afraid to say
And I can't live with the mistake, tearing us apart everyday
We could live on the good just fade away
But I wanna stay and fight for you
Fight until my heart is back in blue
Fight until this is love is left not a single shred of the love we had
I wanna stay and fight for us
Fight like how before I give up
Till I'm the only one, the only one in love
I fight for you
We could turn off our feelings
And go about the days, put on the happy face
Tell everyone that we okay
And we could just say you and me were probably never meant to be
Or we could nothing than a memory
But I wanna stay and fight for you
Fight till my heart is back in blue
Fight until this is love is left not a single shred of the love we had
I wanna stay and fight for us
Fight like how before I give up
Till I'm the only one, the only one in love
I fight for you
Cause we don't the revive baby
Please just survive baby
If you know where I stand, then, I'll be away
Cause it'll never be my choice baby
To give up on us really
Women is so real you found in the first place
When you're the realest thing I've ever met
I wanna stay and fight for you
Fight till my heart is back in blue
Fight till this is love is left not a single shred of the love we had
I wanna stay and fight for us
Fight like how before I give up
Till I'm the only one, the only one in love
I fight for you
