

When the Sun Sleeps

Underoath

I thought you'd come back at least I prayed, so I prayed
The romance has been dead, the romance is dead, the romance is dead
For years, you come back
But I've been too afraid to dig the grave, so I prayed
Relief support never came

Memories carry me through the day
Of when we were kids
And angels came to watch us play

[Chorus]
Close my eyes just for tonight
The sun still sleeps, and when she wakes
Close my eyes just for tonight
The sun still sleeps, and when she wakes

A movie that plays in my mind
Remembering you helps me survive
Every day a re-run of the next
I promised to stay by your side
That all would change, I can't complain
Another victim of the game

[Chorus]
Maybe love will find us again
For there is always tomorrow
Sincerely 'til the end

[Chorus x2]

[Outro]
You'll be a memory, be a memory
You'll be a memory, be a memory
You'll be a memory, be a memory
You'll be a memory, be a memory

You'll be a memory, memory, memory, memory
