

Killing For Love

José González

What's the point if you hate

Die and kill for love, kill for love

What's the point with a love

Makes you hate and kill for

You've got a heart on fire

Bursting with desire

You've got a heart filled with passion

Will you let it burn for hate or compassion

What's the point if you hate

Die and kill for love, kill for love

What's the point with a love

Makes you hate and kill for

What's the point if you hate

Die and kill for love

What's the point with a love

Makes you hate and kill for

Killing for love

Killing for love

Killing for love

Killing for love

You've got a heart on fire

Bursting with desire

You've got a heart filled with passion

Will you let it burn for hate or compassion

What's the point if you hate

Die and kill for love, kill for love

What's the point with a love

Makes you hate and kill for

Killing for love

Killing for love

Killing for love
