

Sacred

Nina Nesbitt

Flauntin' my body, my body, to people who just Think I'm somebody who sung a song they knew
And they hurted my body so good that they'll never know that I faked it
And lately I'm getting too drunk at the same ol' clubs
So I'm livin' my life on a budget, tryna find love
But I don't want a lover who I'm only gonna love when I'm wasted

I want something sacred
I want something amazing
And I'm going through changes
I want something sacred

I've been taking the money, the money, putting on a face
But inside I feel funny, feel dirty, feel outta place
And it's part of the journey, they tell me
But I just want to escape this
'Cause I know strangers better than my friends
Hooked on celebrity, doped up on jealousy
All these people just play pretend
There ain't no integrity, no

I want something sacred
I want something amazing
And I'm going through changes
I want something sacred

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh
I want something sacred, ooh-ooh-ooh
I want something sacred
I want something sacred
I want something sacred
I want something sacred
Sacred

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>