

Waves (feat. Pepa Knight)

Japanese Wallpaper

I am a tidal wave
I am closing down
You took everything I think about

But you're in my head again
I'm somewhere else
An empty shell, I am
So heavy right now
So heavy right now

When we're breathing fire
My heart, my love runs cold
Choking on the words
I will come and go

Am I in your head again
Or is someone else?
Just a distant sun
Burning out

(Oh if I) Could only feel something
That I know that I'm not
(Oh if I) Could only feel something
(Oh if I) Could only be something
(Oh if I) Could only feel something
That I know that I'm not
That I know that I'm not
