Poison Ivy

Jonas Brothers

I just got back from the doctor
He told me that I had a problem
I realized it's you
I tried to scratch away the issue
All I ever get is tissues
So I can wipe away my tearsEveryone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Everyone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Everybody gets the itch
Everybody hates that
Everyone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Now I found out you were lying
When you told me you were trying
Just to medicate the rash
Tangled vines they are deceiving
From the lines that now are leading
To the truth I need to hearEveryone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Everyone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Everybody gets the itch
Everybody hates that
Everyone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Yow
Yeah, I break out and I start to shake
When I hear your name, I can't walk away
I can't stop even if I try
I lay down my pride.I can't walk way.
I get burned and I have to learn
That the court's adjourned, can't walk away
Tied up in my tangled thoughts
I'm tryin just can't walk way
Poison
Poison
Poison IvyEveryone's allergic to
Poison Ivy
Everybody needs a little
Poison Ivy
Everybody wants a little

Poison Ivy
Everybody gets the itch
Everybody hates that
Poison IvyEverybody gets the itch
Everybody hates that
Poison Ivy
Poison Ivy
Poison Ivy
Poison IvyGive me some poison baby!
