

Slow

The Chain Gang of 1974

You took away everything I had faith in
Left me drowned, shattered, wondering through a crowd
I took some pills, sang a song, then I fell down
To my surprise, I woke up and was screaming loud
On and on and on, it's up and go
I know I'm moving slow
You took away everything I had faith in
Left me drowned, shattered, wondering through a crowd
I took some pills, sang a song, then I fell down
To my surprise, I woke up and was screaming loud
On and on and on, it's up and go
I know I'm moving slow
But at least I've still got soul
I know I'm moving slow
But at least I've still got my soul
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
I can't help feeling so low
On and on and on, it's up and go
I know I'm moving slow
But at least I've still got soul
I know I'm moving slow
But at least I've still got my soul
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
Can't stop, can't stop slipping away
I can't help feeling so low
