Invisible

Jonas Brothers

I can feel you all around
In the silence I hear the sound
Of your foot steps on the ground
And my heart slows down
So now I'mI'm waiting for the moonlight
So I can find you in this perfect dream
Don't think that you can hide there in the shadows
Girl you're not invisible
You're all that I can seeSomethings changing deep inside
All my hopes are coming alive
As were fading into the night
I can see your eyes
So I keep on
Waiting for the moonlight
So I can find you in this perfect dream
Don't think that you can hide there in the shadows
Girl youre not invisible
You're all that I canSee in the darkness
Believe we can make this
All we want it to be
We can stay here forever
Cause we were together
Stuck in this fantasy
I don't wanna leave...And I'll keep waiting for the moonlight
So I can find you in this perfect dream
Don't think that you can hide there in the shadows
Girl you're not invisible
I'm waiting for the moonlight
So I can find you in this perfect dream
Don't think that you can hide there in the shadows
Girl you're not invisible
Girl you're not invisible
You're all that I can see
And my heart slows down.
