

Stunner

Milky Chance

She was a stunner
Riding high and I got low
Rank and others
Couldn't see what she was worth
On the party
Behind the sunrise in the meadow
Month of July I was a runner
Running high without a stop
Sticking to the
Imaginable spire-spot
On the party
Behind the sunrise in the meadow
Month of July
Come, come
We go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
We go so far and we
End up in richest poverty
Go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
And we end up
In richest poverty She was a stunner
Riding high and I got low
Rank and others
Couldn't see what she was worth
On the party
Behind the sunrise in the meadow
Month of July
I was a runner
Running high without a stop
Sticking to the
Imaginable spire-spot
On the party
Behind the sunrise in the meadow
Month of July Come, come
We go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
We go so far and we
End up in richest poverty
Go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
And we end up

In richest poverty Come, come
We go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
We go so far and we
Go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
And we end up
In richest poverty I was a runner
Running high without a stop
Sticking to the
Imaginable spire-spot
On the party
We go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
We go so far and we
Go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
And we end up
In richest poverty Come, come
We go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
We go so far and we
End up in richest poverty
Go up to church
And ring the bell of happiness
And we end up
In richest poverty Go up to church
Ring the bell of happiness
And end up
In richest poverty, mhm, yeah
End up
End up
Richest poverty
Goodbye
