

Crazy

Eiffel 65

I'm going crazy
The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
coming back to me
The feelings I breathe
Are the feelings I need
The lives that I live
Are the ones on the screen, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
Coming back to me
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now
The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
coming back to me
The feelings I breathe
Are the feelings I need
The lives that I live

Are the ones on the screen, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
Coming back to me I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now, crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now I'm going crazy The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
coming back to me
