

Not For Radio (feat. Puff Daddy)

Nas

[Intro: Nas]

Escobar season begins[Verse 1: Nas]

Black Kemet gods, black Egyptian gods
Summoned from heaven, blessed, dressed in only Goyard
Homie go hard like stole and rob it in a stolen car
Shoot the ballot box, no voter cards, they all are frauds
Senegal's finest, minerals, diamonds
The earth is cursed but I survive many climates
Calm and thoroughly, they try to Hyman Roth me
John Fitzgerald me, the industry never bought me
Fear will make you reveal who you really are Feel me y'all? Be solid, your foes hold you in ill regard
This ain't knowledge, this is not intense
For honored men, women too
Us who can see the same thing but have a different view
All is somethin', frontin', niggas knew you from your past
Got all kinds of guys sayin' we go way back
And who y'all comparing me to is nonsense
Show gratitude in the presence of dominance

[Chorus: 070 Shake]

I think they scared of us, yeah
I think they scared of us
I think they scared of us, yeah
I think they scared[Verse 2: Nas]
To Catholics, Moors and Masons
John Hanson was not the first black pres to make it
Abe Lincoln did not free the enslaved
Progress was made 'cause we forced the proclamation
SWAT was created to stop the Panthers
Glocks were created for murder enhancement
For hunting men, circumstances
Edgar Hoover was black
Willie Lynch was a myth, Colombians created crack
The government made stacks
Reagan had Alzheimer's, that's true
Fox News was started by a black dude, also true
Convinced my experiences were meant to be
Helps me navigate as they validate their treachery
Felt established, fake as he smile, handshake questionable
Am I good? he ask, thinkin', But is he testin' you?
In my hood, fear does a few things
Make you pussy, make you snitch

Make irrational moves or even turn you to food

[Chorus: 070 Shake]

I think they're scared of us, yeah

I think they're scared of us

I think they're scared of us, yeah

I think they scared

I think they scared of us, yeah

I think they scared of us

I think they scared of us, yeah

I think they scared
