

Her

Anne-Marie

When I think of my mother

No one compares to her

A love like no other

She puts everyone else first

And when I was younger

I treated her the worst

Never known someone stronger

'Cause damn it must've hurt

I don't see you as much as I used to

But if I did, I know what I would do

I'd tell you I love you a million times

Say that I'm sorry if I made you cry

Could never be half the woman even if I tried

But I'll try, I swear I'll try

If someone puts me down, yeah, I know my worth

All thanks to you, the lessons that I've learnt

If I had to put it into words

I think of an angel and all I see is her

All I see is her

Your voice in my head and
It tells me I'm beautiful
And when I have children
I'll pass on the things I was told

I don't see you as much as I used to
But if I did, I know what I would do

I'd tell you I love you a million times
Say that I'm sorry if I made you cry
Could never be half the woman even if I tried

But I'll try, I swear I'll try
If someone puts me down, yeah, I know my worth
It's all thanks to you, the lessons that I've learnt

If I had to put it into words
I think of an angel and all I see is her

All I see is her

All I see is her
