

Ready, Set, Go!

Tokio Hotel

Songwriters: Benzner, Patrick; Hoffman, Peter; Jost, David; Kaulitz, Tom; Roth, Dave; Roth, Rebecca;

We were running through the town

Our senses have been drowned

No place we haven't been before

We learn to live and then

Our freedom came to an end

We have to break down this wall

Too young to live a lie

Look into my eyes

Ready, set, go, it's time to run

The sky is changing, we are one

Together we can make it while the world is crashing down

Don't you turn around

We are looking back again

All loneliness and pain

Never been so wide awake

Breathe slowly in and out

Somewhere behind the clouds

I can see the morning break

Too young to live a lie

Look into my eyes

Ready, set, go, it's time to run

The sky is changing, we are one

Together we can make it while the world is crashing down

Don't you turn around

Leave it all behind you now

The final wall is breaking down

We are what it's all about

Nothing can stop us now

I promise you right now

I'll never let you down

Ready, set, go, it's time to run

The sky is changing, we are one

Together we can make it while the world is crashing down

Don't you turn around

Ready, set, go, it's time to run

The sky is changing, we are one

Together we can make it while the world is crashing down

Don?t you turn around

Don?t you turn around

Don?t you turn around
