

Dysfunctional

KAYTRANADA & VanJess

You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you
But I know that you won't hear me call
You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you But I know that you won't hear me call I don't wanna play, yeah, no games
I'm just tryna stay, yeah, yeah-yeah
Don't say hey in the light, but you'll pull up Wednesday night
It's like this every time Ooh, you get loud when you're inside
Then you're mute 'til round two
Now get up off this sugar with your salt, babe
If you stick 'round in the beehive
No stings, just be nice
Or get up off this sugar with your salt, babe
Dysfunctional, that's what you are
I'm tired of sittin' on you, babe
'Til I'm just waitin' on you, babe
This shot gon' be mine, let's try to rewind
If you don't read my signs
I'll make sure you see You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you (Got me waitin' on you)
But I know that you won't hear me call (I'll be waitin' for you)
You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you (Got me waitin' on you)
But I know that you won't hear me call (Yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah) Yeah-yeah I hate arguing, uh, oh yeah
No ties left to break, babe, baby
Things so good in July, then fall hits, you weren't nice
We fight and don't know why (Ayy)
So I get quiet when it's too much drama
I can't handle you
Now get up off this sugar with your salt, babe
You could stick 'round in the beehive
If you, you would just be kind
Or get up off this sugar with your salt, babe (Baby) Dysfunctional, that's what you are
I'm tired of sittin' on you, babe
'Til I'm just waitin' on you, babe
This shot gon' be mine, let's try to rewind
If you don't read my signs
I'll make sure you see You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you (Got me waitin' on you)
But I know that you won't hear me call (I'll be waitin' for you)
You got me out here screamin', waitin' for you (Got me waitin' on you)
But I know that you won't hear me call (Yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah) I've been makin' it clear
It's dysfunctional, yeah
We dysfunctional, yeah
(Yeah-yeah)

I've been makin' it
It's dysfunctional (Yeah)
We dysfunctional, yeah
(Yeah-yeah)Dysfunctional, that's what you are
I'm tired of sittin' on you, babe
This shot gon' be mine
