

Charleville 9200, Pt. II

Snoh Aalegra

How we go from favorites to being complete strangers?

Help me understand, it wasn't in my plans

Under the stars, Charleville, you were mine

We fell in love, though it was weird, but I

Guess I was wrong to feel alone, you were with me

In my favorite city, Paris don't feel the same

Why you take me up this high?

Just to put a hole in my parachute

So I would fall for you

Why you let us get this low?

When you know I'd give up my life for you

Ride and I'll die for you, I

I-I-I

I-I-I

I-I-I

Say, do you remember

Back when shit was good?

Two kids in the night

We were so alive

Over time I realized, yeah, I realized

It was all a lie, yeah yeah

You were wrong to feel alone, you were with me, and I

I thought I'd found a home, but LA don't feel the same

Why you take me up this high?

Just to put a hole in my parachute

So I would fall for you

Why you let us get this low?

When you know I'd give up my life for you

Ride and I'll die for you, I

I-I-I

I-I-I

I-I-I
