

The Vampyre of Time and Memory

Queens of the Stone Age

I want God to come
And take me home
Coz I'm all alone in this crowd
Who are you to me?
Who am I supposed to be?
Not exactly sure anymore
Mmm where's this going to?
Can I follow through?
I just follow you, for a while
Does anyone ever get this right?
I feel no love And all confusion here
There is eyes I've feared
The illusion that you feel is real
To be vulnerable is needed most of all
If you intend to truly fall apart
You think the worst of all
It's far behind
The Vampyre of time and memories, has died
I've survived, I speak. I breathe, I'm incomplete
I'm alive, hurray, you're wrong again coz' I feel no love
Does anyone ever get this right? Does anyone ever get this right?
I feel no love
I feel no love
