

Have You Seen Me Lately?

Counting Crows

Get away from me,
Just get away from me,
This isn't gonna be easy,
But I don't need you, believe me,
Yeah, you got a piece of me,
But it's just a little piece of me,
An' I don't need anyone,
And these days I feel like I'm fading away,
Like sometimes, when I hear myself on the radio. Have you seen me lately?
Have you seen me lately?
Have you seen me lately?
I was out on the radio starting to change,
Somewhere out in America it's starting to rain,
Could you tell me one thing you remember about me,
And have you seen me lately?
I remember me,
And all the little things,
That make up a memory,
Like she said she loved to watch me sleep,
Like she said, it's the breathing,
It's the breathing in and out and in and out. Have you seen me lately?
Have you seen me lately?
Have you seen me lately?
I was out on the radio starting to change,
Somewhere out in America it's starting to rain,
Could you tell me the things you remember about me,
And have you seen me lately?
You know what, I thought someone would notice,
I thought ah, somebody would say something,
If I was missing, well can't you see me?
Come on color me in,
Come on color me in,
Come on color, come on,
Come on come on, come on,
Give me your blue rain,
Give me your black sky,
Give me your green eyes,
Come on give me your white skin,
Come on give me your white skin,
Come on give me your white skin. 'Cause I was out on the radio starting to change,
Somewhere out in America it's starting to rain,
Could you tell me things you remember about me,

And have you seen me lately?
Have you seen me lately? no, no, no, no,
Have you seen me lately?
