

Wherever You Are

Sam Tsui

All around the world Somebody somewhere's always dancing their heart out
All around the world It may be noon but you can dance like it's dark out
Oh, how many nights have you spent in your bedroom
Oh, singing every word to the song in your headphones
Oh, you got a private party going on when you're alone
But when you're alone, just know We don't need to be together to get it started Throw your hands in the air no matter where you are, babe
Just feel the music so you can join the party
Wherever you are, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are, wherever you are Wherever you are All around the world
Somebody somewhere's always waking the neighbors
All around the world A thousand miles away we're singing the same words
Oh, how many times have you turned up your headphones
Oh, jumping up and down like you're there in the front row
Oh, you got a private party going on when you're alone
to get it started Throw your hands in the air no matter where you are, babe
Just feel the music so you can join the party
Wherever you are, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are
Oh, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are, wherever you are
Wherever you go, you don't have to be alone
Wherever you are, just know, just know, just know
Wherever you go, you don't have to be alone
Wherever you are, wherever you are We don't need to be together
to get it started Throw your hands in the air no matter where you are, babe
Just feel the music so you can join the party
Wherever you are, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are
Oh, wherever you are Oh, wherever you are, wherever you are Wherever you are, wherever you are, wherever you are, wherever you are
