

Lola Stars and Stripes

The Stills

i know this not remain forever how ever it's beautiful your eyes hands and your warm smile they're my treasure it's hard to forget i wish there was solution don't speand your time in cofusion i will turn back and spreadmy broken wings still strong enough to cross the ocean with my broken wings
how far shoul'd i've gone drifting in the wind higher and higher in the skyes
my broken wings
still strong enough to cross the ocean with
my broken wings
how far shoul'd i've gone drifting in the wind across the sky just keep on flyingsora kara achitekuru no wa are wa ame de wa hakute do you ever change your time to my heart because it's afraid of you now i couldn't help then in longer love it's no a toy let go of me now the time spead it's perfection my futur it's not real so leaving to the air
my broken wings
still strong enough to cross the ocean with
my broken wings
how far shoul'd i've gone drifting in the wind
higher and higher in the skyes
still strong enough to cross the ocean with
my broken wings
across the sky just keep on flying sora kara achitekuru no wa are wa ame de wa hakute
