CG5

I'm that little devil
And I am everywhere
What is it that makes us creepy?
Or do you even care?
Let's get to skulking, lurking
Our ink machine is finally working
We were your creation
Never knew you'd lie
Time to believe that you can never leave
No matter how hard you try
Don't hate, appreciate
The arrival of your sorry fate

You really think I wanna kill?
The ink you see can't be distilled
I can tell it's not your day
Well too bad! I'm here to stay
Our surprise is your demise
Close your lying eyes
Play that old song in the night
Right under the spotlight

You really think you can appease him?
His home is the projector screen
He'll surely stop
No I'm just teasin'
This table's been set just for me
Oh can't you see
You got to run screamin' from the demon

Thirty years has come and gone
Your time to shine has just begun
You'll be dancing with the devil on the lower level
Think I'll be going
Make these pipes stop flowing
Time to die, I've gone awry
Say your last goodbye
Play that old song in the night
This is the spotlight!
