

Wishes

Thunderstorm Artis

I watch you as you cast a coin into a wishing well
I watch you as you cast your wishes on a shooting star
And then you're sitting there
Wondering why you're feeling down
And you wonder why your heart
Is covered with scars

Would you blow out your flame?
Amen
You blow out your heart
Heart
In the hand (?)

Cause you keep on wishing
Oh wishing
Wishing for fate change (?)
You keep on wishing
Oh wishing
That they change
You keep on wishing
Oh wishing
Oh wishing for change
You keep on wishing
Oh wishing
That they change

Ask you if you wanna
Bow your head and pray
But you keep on telling me
You're not (?)
Oh
To believe in something
Or someone you can see
Oh, oh
If you open up your eyes
He is in you and me
Oh

But you blow out your flame
Amen

You blow out your heart, heart
In the hand (?)

As you keep on wishing
Oh wishing
Oh wishing for change
You keep on wishing
Oh wishing
That they change

And I keep on wishing
Oh wishing
That you change
I keep on wishing
Oh wishing
That you change
I'll keep on wishing
Oh wishing
Oh wishing for change
But I keep on wishing
Oh wishing that you change
Oh
