

Everybody

Chris Janson

Everybody wanna get rich, but nobody wants to work
Everybody wants to fall in love, but nobody wants to get hurt
Nobody wants to punch that clock, but everybody wants to get paid
Nobody wants to make love no more, everybody just wants to get laid
Everybody wanna be famous
Everybody wanna be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what its like to drivin in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood
Everybody wants to shi-ine
Well i dont really care what everybody does, baby, I just wanna make you mine
Everybody wants to be histiry, but nobosy wants to make it
Everybody wants to be in the licture, but nibidy wnats to take it
Everybody wants to change the world, but nobody wants to change their mind
And everybody got a good reason baby, but nobody got a good rhyme
Aye!
Everybody wanna be famous
Everybody wanna be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what its like to drivin in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood
Everybody wants to shi-ine
Well i dont really care what everybody does, baby, I just wanna make you mine
Aye!
Everybody's over thinkin it, everythings fallin apart
But meanwhile Bruce is brining it
We're dancing in the dark
Everybody wants to be famous
Everybody wants to be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what its like to drivin in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood
Everybody wants to shi-ine
Well i dont really care what everybody does, baby, I just wanna make you mine
Aye!
Yeah i just wanna make you mi-ine
