

Temple (feat. M.I.A. & G-DRAGON)

Baauer

As you move towards the center you see an open temple
A presence patiently waits for you and as you walk toward the inward glade
You can see her pale calm luminous face Warriors, go! Get your freak on
You don't need money cos you won't be alone
Go! I'll get you in the zone
You don't need money cos you won't be alone Got my look out, girls got fit boys to look at Tiger's room, what the fk you looking sat?
Fk it! Touch it good, fk it, lucky
When you come here you wanna get stuck in Empty your pockets, phone out your jacket
Is louder than the racket
In my jungle, don't stumble in my symbol
Body body body body body body bow
Everybody heard about me and everybody know
Faster than a hunter with an arrow to the bow
If he steps close then I'm gonna let it go Yeah hanging in my...and I aim for your temple
Shoot up your party on the beat to the tempo
Bad girls, with the good boy
Body body body body body body bow
Everybody heard about me, everybody know
Faster than a hunter with an arrow to the bow
If he steps close then I'm gonna let it go Body body body body body body bow
Everybody heard about me and everybody know
Faster than a hunter with an arrow to the bow
If he steps close then I'm gonna let it go
My bed is like a lettuce and I wake up on it blessed
Saturday wake up on a belly belly flex
Every girl together, we can still do it best
People with the money what they do morales
Focus on the grind and I'm best by default
Step into my temple and you see me on my throne
Gold on the dome, don't drop that drone
If you don't like then I'm gonna change the tone Body body body body body body bow
Everybody heard about me and everybody know
Faster than a hunter with an arrow to the bow
If he steps close then I'm gonna let it go
