Thunder in the Rain

Kane Brown

Your lips, your eyes, don't wanna let go
Your skin on mine,
I'm losing control
(Hear the rumble in your chest, feel the wind comin' off your breath...!)
Your curves ain't slowin' me down
Ain't nothin' gonna stop us now!You're fire, I'm lightnin', we're burnin' at the core Fallin' and crashin', girl, we're a perfect storm
Every time our hearts collide
I can feel our love come alive
It's insane, baby, we're like thunder in the rain...!
Twisted, tangled like a hurricane
We shake these walls like an earthquake
Hear the rumble in your chest,
Feel the wind coming off your breathe
Awake, calling out my name
Makes me hard to contain
You're fire, I'm lightnin', we're burnin' at the core
Fallin' and crashin', girl, we're a perfect storm
Every time our hearts collide, I can feel our love come alive
It's insane, baby, we're like thunder in the rain...!
We're like thunder in the rain...!You're fire, I'm lightnin', we're burnin' at the core
Fallin' and crashin', girl, we're a perfect storm
You're fire, I'm lightnin', we're burnin' at the core
Fallin' and crashin', girl, we're a perfect storm
Every time our hearts collide, I can feel our love come alive
It's insane, baby, we're like thunder in the rain...!(We're like thunder in the rain...!)
