

Alone Time

Carter Reeves

VERSE 1:

I ain't got much drama going on, and I would like to keep it that way
Excuses stay rolling off my tongue, the second we get close imma push away
My homegirl said she think I got something wrong
Nah I just value my space
Im worried all the good ones will be gone
And that's why I pray

PRE-CHORUS:

What's the point of Alone time
When you get love and you just don't try?
What's the point of a long night
When you alone for the sunrise?

CHORUS:

It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart
It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart

VERSE 2:

Imma need to burn more than sage to get over that
Why I always say that a girls gonna hold me back
Gotta act my age, accept that this just a phase, any day it could be over fast

Now

Why you got money if you ain't gonna spend it
Why you got a car if you ain't gonna lend it
Why you act like you don't know what a real friend is?
She said I been right here (well alright)

PRE-CHORUS:

What's the point of Alone time
When you get love and you just don't try?
What's the point of a long night
When you alone for the sunrise?

CHORUS:

It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart
It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart

BRIDGE:

The house of my dreams will be too big for only me
The house of my dreams will be too big for only me

CHORUS:

It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart
It's all love, money, drugs, sex and art
But I still need someone to break my heart
