

Worst of You

Maisie Peters

You promise it's different
You swear that you listened
I don't mind if you didn't
'Cause I just love the sound of your voice
You role-play the good guy, then induce your white lies
But I see 'em in the sunrise You got me right in the palm of your hand and you know it
Oh, it's what you do
So let me drown
I'll be there with the band
Hit the sea then all I see is you
So give me your worst excuses, any reason to stay
Give me your lips, they taste of her, I'll kiss them again
I'd rather you walk all over me than walk away
Give me the worst of you
'Cause I want you anyway
So take me to every party and just talk to your friends
Why don't you let me down? I'll let you do it again
Go on and walk all over me, just don't walk away
Give me the worst of you
'Cause I want you anyway We make up, but I know we'll fistfight
Through iPhones, my left hook a no-show
'Cause I just keep letting you in
But baby, the truth is I make your excuses
You let me down, and I'm used to it
You got me right in the palm of your hand and you know it
Oh, it's what you do
So let me drown
I'll be there with the band
Hit the sea then all I see is you So give me your worst excuses, any reason to stay
Give me your lips, they taste of her, I'll kiss them again
I'd rather you walk all over me than walk away
Give me the worst of you
'Cause I want you anyway
So take me to every party and just talk to your friends
Why don't you let me down? I'll let you do it again
Go on and walk all over me, just don't walk away
Give me the worst of you
'Cause I want you anyway
Anyway
Anyway
'Cause I want you anyway
Anyway

Anyway Another night, another dotted line
I sign my heart away to you
Some call it foolish
I guess I'll call it art
