

Gone (feat. Kelly Rowland)

Nelly & Kelly Rowland

Gone gone gone gone
Girl you know you got me gone Nelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Don't you know you got me gone Remember that chick that used to live right up the block from me
I seen her yesterday and she still fly
She still right, still tight, still fine
Yep I still wanna make her mine
I want much more than just a moment
She I aint tryna lease or try to rent I'm tryna own it
Yeah, this time I'll make my move, this time I'll show improve
To prove that I'm really irreplaceable
Plus I don't know if she's ever been told
But I got whatever she needs, yeah
And whichever way we go
No-one could ever take what we've got right here between one another
Don't care what they say, you could be my lover
And if its in love baby, I wanna fall
Just promise me baby You'll be here, through it all
I'll do it again if I have to
Throw this money at you Girl you know you got me gone
I'll do it all again if I have to
You aint gotta ask boo Boy you know you got me gone
Kelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone Girl you know you got me gone
Nelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Boy you know you got me gone
You know I still got the love for you baby (baby)
You know you still be driving me crazy (crazy)
And all of my heart will forever be yours
And no-one could ever break what we've got right here between one another
What they say, you could be my lover
And if its in love baby I wanna fall Just promise me baby
You'll be here through it all
I'll do it again if I have to Throw this money at you
Girl you know you got me gone
I'll do it all again if I have to You aint gotta ask boo
Boy you know you got me gone Kelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Girl you know you got me gone Nelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Boy you know you got me gone
Look shawty I've done told you once
Pay attention I'mma tell you twice
I've been around the World
But I've never met a girl like you in my whole life

There's somthin' you need to know
You make me wanna get physical You make me wanna get intimate, into it
I'm fixing the plug
All my heart and all my time
I give you anything that you want baby just name your price
What's mine is yours
Yours is mine
Trust me thats a fact girl
You aint gotta ask girl
I don't know if you've ever been told girl
But I've got whatever you need, girl
And whichever way we roll
N-one could ever take
No-one could ever take what we've got right here between one another
Don't care what they say, you could be my lover
And if its in love baby, I wanna fall
Just promise me baby
You'll be here, through it all
I'll do it again if I have to
Throw this money at you
Girl you know you got me gone
I'll do it all again if I have to
You aint gotta ask boo
Boy you know you got me gone
Kelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Girl you know you got me gone
Nelly got me gone, gone, gone, gone
Boy you know you got me gone
Boy you know you got me
