

Never Be Sorry

Old Dominion

We swung our feet off of the edge of the moon
We got that high for a minute
Sometimes forever gets away from you
No matter how hard you grip it Sorry the sky fell down
Sorry I don't know why
All we do is apologize Oh, but I'll never be sorry for my hands in the pockets
Of your hoodie, called you "Sugar" just to make you smile
And I'll never be sorry for the shoes that I bought you
In Chicago, we were walking down the Miracle Mile
Oh I, oh I I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you
I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you
Sometimes two people end up victims of love
It don't work out like you planned it (Oh, no, no, no)
Just 'cause we couldn't get the stars to line up
Don't mean we leave empty-handed Sorry the sun came up
Sorry the second verse
Just wasn't as sweet as the first Oh, but I'll never be sorry for that night in Santa Barbara
We got locked out of your car in the pouring rain
And I'll never be sorry for missing the party
'Cause the way your body looked in that dress blew me away
Oh I, oh I I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you
I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you Oh I, oh I
I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry, baby
I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you Yeah, I'll never be sorry for my hands in the pockets
Of your hoodie, called you "Sugar" just to make you smile
Yeah, I'll never be sorry for the shoes that I bought you
In Chicago, we were walking down the Miracle Mile
Oh I, oh I I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you
I'll never be sorry, I'll never be sorry
I'll never be sorry for loving you
I'll never be sorry
