

Bad Girls Don't Cry

The Night Game

Blood red summer
Neon nights
Diamond gypsy
And shadow light
Feeling hungry
Need a thrill
Ice to cut
And legs to kill Down for the weekend
Got a bucket of love for the deep end
You gotta store your secret for keeping
And I want it, yes I want it, I want it
A wolf for the moon's eye
I found God, now die with the light down
He said you gotta be getting out of this town
Yeah you want it, you want it
What am I supposed to do
I'm dying to get to you
Living in a bad world, no lie
She told me bad girls don't cry
Looking for something too
I put my hands on you
And tell me are you sad girl, oh why
She told me bad girls don't cry Midnight dancer
Take my hands
Maybe I'm you
Condiment, she said
Everyday it's Halloween
Little boys out
Lipstick dreams
I'm sprung like a first date
With the cash in my hands, I'm a check mate
Keep your heart in a vault in a brass case
But I want it, yes I want it, I want it
You move when the song plays
Say you live in a world full of dark days
And you dream of a life out of this cage
And you're on it, you're on it What am I supposed to do
I'm dying to get to you
Living in a bad world, no lie
She told me bad girls don't cry
Looking for something too

I put my hands on you
And tell me are you sad girl, oh why
She told me bad girls don't cry What am I supposed to do
I'm dying to get to you
Living in a bad world, no lie, yeah
She told me bad girls don't cry
Looking for something too
I put my hands on you
And tell me are you sad girl, oh why
Ooh, she told me bad girls don't cry
She told me bad girls don't cry
