

Nobody Knows

Russ

[Chorus]

Yeah

Mask up my pain, hold back my tears

I'm going insane; nobody knows

All by myself, let the rain hit me

I'm going insane; nobody knows

[Verse 1]

Yeah, I take another shot

Tryna just forget all the negative

Devil laughin', meanwhile God explaining the benefits

Listen financial freedom

Come and go as you please

Arenas packed out

Plus a bunch of hoes on their knees

You got your mom a house

Yeah, I know it seems bittersweet

Because your parents separated

You thought money sewed seams

Now you think it's your fault

You enabled the breakup

But that's the power of money

Now you just funding the makeup

With the same tool that brought it down

Tell the waiter I don't want no ice

I just want tequila

I don't want it watered down

Everything I bought for y'all

I figured that I bought a crown

I figured that y'all know that you can get it since I got it now

I saw this goin' differently

I be lookin' at the seven year old me like don't come visit me

The public took the fun away

You've been robbed of all of your innocence

I'm talkin' to myself, I hope I'm listening, damn
