

HAPPINESS

NEED TO BREATHE

Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.

Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.

I got a home sick heart
but a long ways left to go.

I've been doing my part
but I ain't got much to show.

So I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.

It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.

Chasing that life, moving on cause I had to prove

That ain't no life
worth doing what I did to you.

So I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.

It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.

I've got dreams that keep me up
in the dead of night,

Telling me I wasn't made for the simple life.

Theres a light I see
but its far in the distance.

I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.

It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.

Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.

Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.

I've been working all night
maybe you can help me to believe.

This song ain't nothing
if the song can't set you free.

So I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.

It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.

I've got dreams to keep me up
in the dead of night,

Telling me I wasn't made for the simple life.

Theres a light I see
but its far in the distance.

I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.
It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.
Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
Sometimes you leave the ones you love
but if it's love they won't give up cause they know the war is raging
and you've gotta choose.
These days are tough,
these days are long,
sometimes its hard to carry on.
But I hear a voice singing,
and I know it's true.
I've got dreams to keep me up
in the dead of night,
Telling me I wasn't made for the simple life.
Theres a light I see
but its far in the distance.
I'm asking you
to show me some forgiveness.
It's all for you
in my pursuit of happiness.
Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
Singing Oh, Oh, Oh, happiness.
