

I'm a Firefighter

Cigarettes After Sex

Baby I'm a firefighter
Trapped in a burning house
And the sudden picture
I think there's no way out
Except to watch the love between us die
Let's call the fallen angel
It's an army whose men pack ride
Some sort of a roller-coaster
It takes you up and then it brings you down
It gives you butterflies
And now I'm longing for your kiss
Bet you could read or draw like this
Waterfalls are traveling down
I know you're leaving baby
The birds are flying south
There's nothing to say
I need you here I need your love
Inside of mine like I could die
I need your love
Inside of mine like I could die
