

Prescriptions

Walker Hayes

Well I'm trying to be mature in this situation
And just big light return, smile would be my replacement Wanna wish you all the best not even be lying
But not I hope I cross your mind When you're half drunk half asleep lying in his bed
And you go to say his name and you say mine instead
And you promise that it's nothing
But I guess it's in his head and he can't let it go, wo-ah Y'all fight about it all night about it
Wake up blood shot eyes about it cause you cried about it
And you're sick about it and he can't stop being
Pissed about it don't forget about don't forgive about it
Relationship goes to shit about it and you bitch about it
Tell your sister about it see your therapist about it (hey)
She ain't got nothing to prescribe
It's a prescription (ah) just kicked in kinda
(She ain't got nothing to prescribe
It's a prescription, it's prescription) Ain't trying to be a jerk it's my weird way of coping
One of my mechanisms is to band aid a broken
I know I'm projecting y'all good with that word
But still I hope one night When you're half drunk half asleep lying in his bed
And you go to say his name and you say mine instead
And you promise that it's nothing but I guess
it's in his head and he can't let it go, wo-ah Y'all fight about it all night about it
Wake up blood shot eyes about it
'Cause you cried about it
And you're sick about it and he can't stop being
pissed about it don't forget about don't forgive about it
Relationship goes to shit about it and you bitch about it
Tell your sister about it see your therapist about it (hey)
She ain't got nothing to prescribe
It's a prescription (ah) just kicked in kinda
(She ain't got nothing to prescribe
It's a prescription, it's prescription just kicked in kinda) She ain't got nothing to prescribe nothing to nothing to prescribe it's a prescription Half drunk half asleep lying in his bed
And you go to say his name and you say mine instead
And you promise that it's nothing but I guess
it's in his head and he can't let it go, wo-ah Y'all fight about it all night about it
Wake up blood shot eyes about it
'Cause you cried about it
And you're sick about it and he can't stop being
Pissed about it don't forget about don't forgive about it
Relationship goes to shit about it and you bitch about it
Tell your sister about it see your therapist about it (hey) She ain't got nothing to prescribe

It's a prescription (ah) just kicked in kinda
(She ain't got nothing to prescribe
It's a prescription ah just kicked in kindaShe ain't got nothing to nothing to nothing to prescribe it's a prescription
