

Doomsday

Elvis Perkins In Dearland

Thoguh I forget your name*
I remember your sweet face
'Til doomsday, 'till doomsday
Man, I went wild last night
O, I went feeling alright
Doomsday won't bother me
Will it bother you I know you
Told me once and again
Does it mean that we won't be friends
When doomsday rears its lovely head again
And though you voted for that awful man
I would never rguse your hand
On doomsday, on doomsday
It never once did seem
That doomsday would fall anywhere near a tuesday
But fly it across the sky
See it fade before my eyes
There isn't any sense to a good by and by
For I don't plan to die
Nor should you plan to die
Nah nah nah nah nah
Nahh nah nah nah nah
Nahhh nah nah nah nah
Nahhhh nah nah nah nah
Nahhhhh nah nah nah nah
Nahhhhhh nah nah nah nah
Nahhhhhh nah nah nah nah
