

The Coconut Song

Max Schneider

A one, two, let's pretend
That we be on an island
And you'd be spend your days
Picking up the coconuts
And I'll be on my way
Why do you stress?
There is so much less
To fear,
Relax it's a new year
Relax oh o oh
Relax it's a new year
Why are you always
Bringing up the past?
And how do always
Make these moments last
And you're always complaining
And I'm always draining from the screams
It's my dream
That you'll just come down
And look around and see.
That.
We be on an island
You'd be spend your days
Picking up the coconuts
And I'll be on my way
Why are you stressing?
Take this lesson
And hear
Relax it's a new year
Relax oh o oh
Relax it's a new year
You've been playing
Yourself
Since the beginning
And I've been grinning
While you've been crying
And I've been laughing
The pain is killing
But I am willing
To give you my coconut
We be on an island
You'd be spend your days
Picking up the coconuts
And I'll be on my way
Why do you stress?
There is so much less
To fear, Relax it's a new year
Relax oh o oh
