

Don't Let Me Let You Go

Jamie Lawson

I know I make mistakes and I can let you down
Don't always find the words to say
For all this searching you're the best thing that I've found
I'll be hoping you stay
Before you let me throw this all away, before you let me say all the stupid things I will say
Take these arms and let them hold you tight
Love you more than love could ever know
I may fuck things up from time to time
Don't let me let you go
Don't let me let you go
When they get jealous and a little insecure and they get drunk and let those bleed
But it's hard to believe that beauty like yours could fall for something like me
Take these arms and let them hold you tight
Love you more than love could ever know
I may fuck things up from time to time but
Don't let me let you go
Don't let me let you go
I'll do my best to learn from these mistakes
I may fail but I will always try
I would tell you every single day
I plan to stay by your side
Stay right by your side
Take these arms and let them hold you tight
Love you more than love could ever know
I may fuck things up from time to time
Don't let me let you go
Take these arms and let them hold you tight
Love you more than love could ever know
I may fuck things up from time to time
But don't let me let you go
Don't let me let you go
Don't ever let me let you go
