

Detonate

Timeflies

The glass shatters as I walk in
They don't know it yet, but I hear'em talkin' Timeflies yes, I'ma clock in
And we the dudes that your girlfriend stalkin'
Yeah, I'm on it like I never was Hittin' you harder than ever with a better buzz
For lightyears
To infinity and back divinity on the track yes leader of the pack'cause
With this chipstack, enough chit chat
Understand this? This is a mismatch
On the steady grind, I'm never ever slowin'
Clever as ever, flowin', makin' some cheddar and goin'
Far, I'm aimin it at the moon
Lying in the cannon well please light the fuse soon
Any beat I run, worldplay I'm fluent
Challenge me and I wonder what the fuck you doin'
You been starin at me all night long
Why don't you come over and day something
Girl I could see the game you on, but baby I don't wanna play nothing
I could tell what you want, you already know I got it
So why don't we get it on, baby I'ma rock your body
So when these lights get turned down low
Got the whole place rocking now
Ain't nothing that can stop us now, let's go(Chorus)I, I, I, I know you want me, baby
I, I, I, I think I want you too
I, I, I, I'm bout to make you crazy
Lady, this is what we gonna doI, I, I, I know you want me, baby
I, I, I, I think I want you too
I, I, I, I'm bout to make you crazy
Lady, I, I'ma give it to you
Damn, I could do this all night long, yeah I'm lovin the way you move girl
We could go until the break of dawn, baby let me take you to a new world
And with the way you look tonight, ain't no way I'ma leave without you
Girl, you know what I like, yeah I think I'ma write a song about you
So when these lights get turned down low
Got the whole place rockin now, ain't nothing that can stop us now
We could turn it up, everybody lose control, let's go(Chorus)Unleash your glory on the night sky
For those wondering years yes I am the right guy
Used to worry who I was doin right by
And now I just light and ignite my brain
Make the club go insane, this fuse only takes one flame

For me to go and make fire, rap it like a gift and sing it like a choir
Girl, I just love the way you backin it up on me
I can't wait to take you home and fold you up like origami
Yes I think it might be time, cause you know it's gettin late
And this place about to lose it when we d-d-d-d-detonate(Chorus x2)
