

Fell in the Sun

Big Grams

Flew too high

Fell in the sun

I'm just a cool ass nigga, put Atlanta on the map
I whip the yellow Cadillac, I like my seats way back
I bust the sun roof open, beams hit the Braves cap
Call me Chief Noc-A-Homa, you can't beat it with a bat
Droppin' bombs, atomic, dog I could never chase the cat
Keep the spotlight on me, it will never fade to black
If I speak it then I mean it, I will never take it back
My demeanor's like a king, I'm leavin' niggas in the trap

Melting the ice

We fell in the Sun, love

Ain't no surprise

We fell in the, we fell in the, we fell in the Sun, love
Once upon a time there was a boy named Daddy Fat
Heard he grew into a man and put his family on his back
Had a master plan, Da Vinci code, nobody couldn't crack
Even though when times got difficult, he kept on slangin' rap
Servin' nothin' but that gas cause the walls are full of plaques
And not the regular unleaded or the mid, we got the pack

We extra-terrestrial, extraordinary

In the center of your solar system, shinin' on the daily

Melting the ice

We fell in the Sun, love

Ain't no surprise

We fell in the, we fell in the, we fell in the Sun, love

Shine like a second at the Sun, but it's too hot

Don't matter where you're from, lose your cool now

Dealt this dope from ATL to New York

Dealt this dope from ATL to New York

Shine like a second at the Sun, but it's too hot

Don't matter where you're from, lose your cool now

Dealt this dope from ATL to New York

Dealt this dope from ATL to New York

Oh yeah

Talk about a Vitamin D overdose

And I do mean D

Melting the ice

We fell in the Sun, love

Ain't no surprise

We fell in the, we fell in the, we fell in the Sun, love

We fell in the, we fell in the Sun

We fell in the, we fell in the, we fell in the Sun, love
We fell in the, we fell in the Sun
We fell in the, we fell in the, we fell in the Sun, love
