

Come Tomorrow

Barbra Streisand & Barry Alan Gibb

Are you ready for the day
That we've prayed for Already holding what is real
You know the soul finds its own evolution
And this is the only love I feel
And I tell you
I'm keeping up the strength
I've gotta try
'Cause you ain't getting past this heart of mine
I'm out here waiting for you
With all I've got to give
And I accept this life we live
I'll be your lover
And I'll be your friend
I'm gonna follow you
Right to the end I wasn't made to tell you lies
I only came to make you realize I'll be your hero
And I'll be your clown
You pick me up
You let me down Don't make me stumble, don't make me wait
'Cause come tomorrow will be to late Come tomorrow
Come tomorrow
I got to turn away my face
'Cause you blind me with your light
Can you catch up to me?
You know I love you in the black of night
This sacred ritual
This journey has begun
We try... We try to carry on
And you innocents
You get to find the things in life
That get you through (one more dance)
And deep inside the things you are no one never knew
(one last chance)
Let me make it happen
This world we have forseen
And I will tell you how I feel Love will be better for wearing your ring
I'm gonna give you everything I wasn't made to tell you lies
I only came to make you realize I'll be your hero
And I'll be your clown

You pick me up
You let me down Don't make me stumble, don't make me wait
'Cause come tomorrow will be too late Come tomorrow
Come tomorrow
