

Autobiography

Ashlee Simpson

You think you know me
Word on the street is that you do
You want my history
What others tell you won't be true I walked a thousand miles while everyone was asleep
Nobody's really seen my million subtleties Got stains on my t-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt
Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh
Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark
If you want my auto, want my autobiography
Baby, just ask me
I hear you talking
Well, it's my turn now
I'm talking back
Look in my eyes
So you can see just where I'm at I walked a thousand miles to find one river of peace
I walked a million more to find what this shit means Got stains on my t-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt
Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh
Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark
If you want my auto, want my autobiography
Baby, just ask me I'm a bad ass girl in this messed up world
I'm a sexy girl in this crazy world
I'm a simple girl in a complex world
A nasty girl, you wanna get with me?
You wanna mess with me?
Got stains on my t-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt
Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh
I laugh more than I cry
You piss me off, good-bye (Good-bye!)
Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark
If you want my auto, want my autobiography
Baby, just ask me
