Gone Away

H.E.R.

Say, why I'm lookin' at way You ain't do nothin' wrong I'm wildin' It's five I waited up last night Said you got too high I'm tiredSo you want me to give you honesty Said you wanted every piece of me You don't wanna hear me out tonight I just turn around and say goodnight You don't feel a way You're gone away You don't listen You promised you wouldn't change It'd stay the same But it's different We were much happier when It was always happy endingsWait maybe it's just a phase Took a minute for you to say 'I'm sorry' Don't ask if you really don't wanna hear it When I'm tellin' you how I feel You're botheredSaid you want me to give you honesty Said you wanted every piece of me You don't wanna hear me loud tonight Don't let me turn around and say goodbye You don't feel a way You're gone away You don't listen You promised it wouldn't change It'd stay the same But it's different We were much happier when It was always happy endings You have the right to feel a way I tried to change you
